To: reply+f6668f10-695a-4b68-9c38-431f4582edca@helpareporter.com Subject: The mahjong set — grandma’s sideboard staple, back on stylish tables

Hi Pippa,

For your “things your grandparents decorated with that designers now love” feature — may I nominate the mahjong set?

Mid-century American homes kept a mahjong set on the sideboard the way they kept a deck of cards, and it's having a real revival: US search interest in “american mahjong set” now tops 14,000 monthly queries, and a new generation of design-led sets treats the tiles as decor in their own right.

I'm the designer behind Averill Mahjong. When I drew our Monet's Garden set, the brief I gave myself was “too beautiful to put away” — engraved floral artwork, coral-orange tile backs, a palette that sits happily on a coffee table between games. That's precisely the shift: these pieces have moved from the games cupboard to the open shelf.

Happy to contribute:

- High-res styled tabletop imagery (lifestyle and tile close-ups) — cleared for editorial use
- A short designer's comment on why this grandparent-era object is back in the room

Just reply and I'll send the image folder straight over.

Warm regards, Claire Miller Designer, Averill Mahjong hello@averillmahjong.com · averillmahjong.com

Hi Konstantina,

For your 2026 Holiday Gift Guides — I'd love to send a review sample of a giftable family product we make.

The Averill Mahjong Set — Monet's Garden ($159.99) An American mahjong set with 160 engraved acrylic tiles and everything a table of four needs to play the same evening: instruction booklet, four quick-reference cards, and the current official hands card. It arrives in gift-ready packaging with a zippered carrying bag — no wrapping required.

Why it suits a holiday guide: mahjong is one of the fastest-growing social games in the US, it's a genuinely screen-free multigenerational activity, and it's the kind of gift still in weekly use years later rather than shelved by January.

A materials note, since your readers care: the artwork is engraved into the acrylic rather than surface-printed, so nothing rubs off with years of handling; the carry bag is cotton canvas and the paper goods are exactly that — paper.

Happy to ship a full sample for hands-on review — just reply with a shipping address. High-res imagery available too.

Warm regards, Claire Miller Designer, Averill Mahjong hello@averillmahjong.com · averillmahjong.com

Hi Nicole,

Your Script to Screen event caught my eye — Atlanta's professional women in media are, quite honestly, exactly the community our brand was designed for.

I'm the designer at Averill Mahjong. We make American mahjong sets with engraved, garden-inspired artwork ($159.99), and mahjong nights have quietly become the new book club among professional women across the South.

Based on your donation guide, here's what we'd love to contribute:

1. General attendee gift bags (50 units): our beautifully printed mahjong quick-reference card sets — a keepsake that introduces the game that's become the new book club among professional women across the South.
2. Speaker & Host appreciation: one full Monet's Garden set (a $160 value, arrives gift-ready in premium packaging) — engraved floral tiles that photograph beautifully.

We'll provide the company logo, product description, and high-resolution imagery per your submission requirements, and can ship to your Lawrenceville address well before the August 31 donation deadline.

Warm regards, Claire Miller Designer, Averill Mahjong hello@averillmahjong.com · averillmahjong.com

中文注释：按征稿原文的量级表报价：50 份规则卡小件 (≥20 件门槛 ✓，单件成本几美元) + 1 套完整装给讲者礼。⚠️ 前置确认：是否有 50 份可单独包装的速查卡库存？没有的话让工厂加印（这批卡正好也是“规则卡独立 SKU”计划的首批库存）。捐赠截止 8/31，寄往 Lawrenceville, GA (地址见附录原文)。

To: reply+ccd16d62-2c8c-4b54-aaaa-ae6751bd77cc@helpareporter.com Subject: Ultimate Gift Guide segment — interest + a few questions (Averill Mahjong)

Hi Patricia,

Your Ultimate Gift Guide segment sounds like a lovely fit for one of our products — the Averill Mahjong Set, an American mahjong set with engraved floral artwork that's become a favorite gift among women who host game nights ($159.99, ships gift-ready).

Before we submit formally, could you share a few practical details?

1. Is there a participation or production fee for featured products, and if so, the rate card?
2. What does the feature include across the TV segment, website, and social placements?
3. Sample and material deadlines for the Nov/Dec shows?

If the structure fits, we'd be glad to send a sample and full press kit.

(⚠ 原文指定必须用此主题行)

Hi Amy,

Your Holiday Celebrity & Influencer Gifting Campaign looks interesting for our brand — Averill Mahjong makes design-led American mahjong sets ($159.99) that photograph beautifully and sit naturally in the lifestyle/entertaining space.

Per your application requirements: Averill Mahjong (averillmahjong.com) — we'd submit The Averill Mahjong Set, Monet's Garden ($159.99), for the influencer pool (possibly both pools). Why it stands out as a holiday gift: engraved floral artwork that photographs beautifully, a complete play-tonight set in gift-ready packaging, and mahjong is the fastest-growing social game among American women right now.

Since this is a paid opportunity, could you also send over the campaign details? Specifically:

1. Participation fees for each pool (celebrity / influencer), and what's included
2. The recipient list profile — we'd want overlap with women 45+ in lifestyle, home entertaining, or games
3. Expected deliverables: is organic posting guaranteed, encouraged, or simply possible?
4. Results from a past campaign, if shareable

With the details in hand we can move quickly on a decision.

Warm regards, Claire Miller Designer, Averill Mahjong hello@averillmahjong.com · averillmahjong.com

Hi Carla,

For your Small Brands, Big Ideas feature — Averill Mahjong is a founder-led brand redesigning the American mahjong set from the tiles up.

The unmet need: American mahjong is booming — search interest has multiplied in three years, and tables are forming in living rooms across the South — but most sets on the market are either mass-produced commodities or priced as luxury objects. We set out to make the set in between: heirloom-quality engraved tiles, artwork worth displaying, at an accessible price ($159.99).

What’s different: our artwork is engraved into the acrylic rather than printed on it (it never rubs off — these sets are built to be played weekly for decades), each set ships with everything four players need to learn the same evening, and the design brief for our first collection, Monet’s Garden, was simply “too beautiful to put away.”

Brand: Averill Mahjong · averillmahjong.com Founder story and headshots available on request; happy to send a sample or high-res imagery.

① Homes & Gardens (Pippa Blenkinsop) · 截稿 8/9 8:05AM ET

I'm working on a feature for Homes & Gardens online on vintage items making a comeback and I'm looking for images and comments from interior designers to include. The working title in my brief is '7 things your grandparents decorated with that designers now love'. I'm looking to include lovely interior-designed room images that feature vintage home items and furniture from the 1940s/50s and 60s along with some expert comment. Below are some guide questions. Please note I am looking for answers from interior designers only. Are there any vintage items that your grandparents owned that you love to decorate with now? Why did the items fall out of fashion, and what is it about them that appeals now? When decorating with vintage, how can you ensure these items remain looking contemporary and don't make a home feel dated? The feature is image-led, so the images must be suitable before the comment can be considered.

同事注意：她限定“仅限室内设计师”且“图片先行”——我们的 Claire 设计师身份是擦边球，命中率打折但值得一试；取胜关键是图：要发“有房间场景感”的生活方式图（不是白底产品图）。
